The Power of Hamish

The company formed in February 2022 and started trading in March 2022 and quickly established a noticable market share.

The brand stands out in the market place.

People are drawn to the brand. Most homes have an affiliation with a Highland Cow. A very recognisable and friendly icon of Scotland. This has enabled us to build value and trust through our brand. Our brand has been trademarked to protect the company and it's associates. All our marketing comes with an accute attention to detail and brand consistency.

The Market Place

There are too many estate agents competing solely on price at the expense of service. Lacking in quality and personal approach. Not all clients are price led, like any market place the educated consumer is looking for a quality service. This is where Hamish finds it's niche. To combat price led agents, Hamish offer all our clients service with no up front fees, we even fund the home report. The client only pays for our services once the house is sold.

Rather than cut costs doing the photography ourselves, we employ professional photographers who also produce professional videos. In addition we employ professional copywriters to ensure our listings stand out from the crowd.

What our clients say about us...

Lynn

Hamish were extremely helpful from the time that we viewed the property. They were enthusiastic and knowledgeable at the viewing and dealt with our offer quickly and professionally. House moving is stressful at the best of times and for us it never seems to go smoothly. Hamish did an amazing job in keeping communications going in our chain and did everything they could to make sure we moved in on time, against all the odds.

We were very happy with the service we received and would highly recommend!

Becky

Hamish were absolutely super in all aspects of our house sale. They were so accommodating to our personal needs and worked viewings around our busy family life. A very professional service and would have absolutely no hesitations to recommend.

Debbie

We recently purchased a property from Hamish. Throughout the process Hamish were very professional, knowledgeable and accommodating even calling in on us a couple of days after the move to ensure we had settled in. Great Service.

Stuart

Engaging Hamish Homes to market and sell our property was one of the easiest decisions we had to make. Hamish were knowledgeable, helpful and importantly available to discuss any matters that arose during the whole process. The marketing resulted in a wide range of potential buyers and a sale price ahead of our expectations. Thanks Hamish....

Richard

Superb service from Hamish. Professional, open lines of communication. Full disclosure of costs given up front, no hidden charges. 100% recommended.
